FIFA Football Federation of American Samoa Gears up for 2026 World Cup Qualifiers

On Monday, May 20, 2024 members of Fédération internationale de football association (FIFA) of American Samoa convened with the ASG-HI Director and Deputy Director to strategize on American Samoa's preparations for the upcoming 2026 World Cup Qualifying games.

During the meeting, discussions centered on outlining plans to ensure that American Samoa is prepared to participate in the 2026 World Cup Qualifiers. The collaboration between the FIFA of American Samoa and the ASG-HI office demonstrates a strong commitment to propelling

American Samoa's football ambitions to greater heights. As a critical step in this preparation process, a camp selection event is scheduled to take place in August. This camp selection will serve as a platform for identifying and nurturing talent within American Samoa's football community in anticipation of the 2026 World Cup Qualifying games. For more information and inquiries Contact ASG-HI Deputy Lefauseu III or Patrick Savelio at (808) 212-5883.
